To whom it may concern:

Film Independent is the non-profit arts organization that champions creative independence in visual storytelling and supports a community of artists who embody diversity, innovation and uniqueness of vision.

Project Involve is Film Independent's signature program dedicated to fostering the careers of talented filmmakers from communities traditionally underrepresented in the film industry. The program, which runs from January through September, selects filmmakers from diverse backgrounds and are given the opportunity to hone skills, form creative partnerships, create short films and gain industry access needed to succeed as working artists.

During the nine-month program, Fellows collaborate on six (6) ten-minutes short films as part of their curriculum. These projects are exercises to help the Fellows work on their craft and create an opportunity to see the work through from pre- to post-production.

These short projects have no commercial purpose and Film Independent retains ownership and all rights.

Any assistance you can provide to our current Project Involve Fellows; Nasir Kenneth Ferebee, Jhanvi Motla, Martina Lee, Michelle Sam, Morgan Cooper and Brandon Porter will significantly impact their project Black Boy Joy.

Film Independent gratefully accepts your in-kind donations and the support you are giving to these talented filmmakers.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call or contact me via email.

Sincerely,

Francisco Velasquez

Dear Sir or Madam:

This is in response to your request of November 28, 2006 regarding your name change. We have updated our records as indicated above.

Our records indicate that a determination letter was issued in May 1986 that recognized you as exempt from Federal income tax. Our records further indicate that you are currently exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Our records also indicate you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because you are described in section 509(a)(2).

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely,
Cindy Westcott
